Our Online Safety Family Contract

online

As a family take some time to sit down together and discuss the things that it is important to remember when using the internet. Think about behaviour or actions that keep us safe and ensure our time online is an enjoyable one. Then decide upon 5 rules for the family that will help us achieve this, write them below and sign to show you promise to follow the rules.

Why not put your family contract on display somewhere at home, such as the fridge, to help everyone remember our promises.
