

British Values

In accordance with The Department for Education we aim to actively promote British values in schools to ensure young people leave school prepared for life in modern Britain. Pupils are encouraged to regard people of all faiths, races and cultures with respect and tolerance and understand that while different people may hold different views about what is "right" and "wrong", all people living in England are subject to its law.

At Filton Avenue our values of Collaboration, Aspiration, Respect and Endeavour underpin all that we do and are interwoven with the DfE's definition of 'fundamental British Values', namely:

- Democracy
- The rule of law
- Individual liberty
- Mutual respect for and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.

The Jigsaw and Discovery RE Curriculum provides explicit teaching of fundamental British values every year.

Additional planned opportunities such as assemblies, School Council (including elections), visits and visitors provide children with lived experiences of these values.
